Guide for Creating Your Bibliography

We had a quick lesson about bibliographies for Social Studies, but in case you need more information or need a refresher, here is what you need to know:

1. English and Social Studies uses MLA 8 for citing work such as textbooks, websites, or other sources that you use for information.

2. Here are websites that should help you make your citations easily:
   b. http://www.citationmachine.net/mla/cite-a-website

3. Input your copied URL:

MLA Format: Everything You Need to Know Here

EasyBib Guide to MLA 8 Format

If you are doing this for your textbook:

Make sure that you choose the “BOOK” format to input the correct information. Here is the MLA for your textbook. You can copy and paste this information:

_Crossroads: a Meeting of Nations_, by Michael William Cranny, Pearson, 2013, pp. # #.

You must input your page numbers.
4. Select the source that comes up in the search:

   Select your Source (Step 1 of 4)

5. Under the “review info” (step 2/4), click “Continue”
   - You may need to copy and paste the article title that is usually the title of the page you’re looking at or the topic of the page such as “Clash of Empires and The Battle of the Plains of Abraham > Introduction: The Seven Years' War”.
